Miss Helen Margaret Ellis and John Marshall were married Saturday night by Rev. C. L. Overstreet, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Herbert Hunter, on Monte Vista street. The couple were unattended. They stood for the ceremony before the mantel place in the living room, which was decorated with ferns and smilax, and hung a white wedding veil of white flowers. The rooms were illuminated with candles in silver stands, and decorated with garlands of white carnations and roses and festoons of smilax. The bride wore a gown of tan silk with a touch of blue and white. The groom was dressed in a tuxedo. The gown was draped with gold lace. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Before the ceremony the bride's cousins, Mrs. L. J. Burrud and Robin Lindsey, sang "Helen," with Mrs. Herbert Hunter accompanying them. Mrs. Hunter played the organ. The bride's relatives and the most intimate friends of the young people were present. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall will make their home for the present with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hunter. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Ellis, of Florida. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Marshall, of Lawrence, Mass.

WHY NOT BUY A PLAYER-PIANO that your Grandma, Grandpa, your wife and kiddies, can play? Anyone can play the AUTOPIANO.

Victor Herbert, Mary Garden, Puccini, Tetrassini, the Pope, King of Spain, and many other notables use and endorse the Autopiano. The AUTOPIANO has received more international awards than any other make of player-piano.

The AUTOPIANO was awarded four medals at the Panama Exposition and was the official musical instrument for a score of the leading State Buildings.

Over 100 U. S. battleships have purchased AUTOPIANOS, and the AUTOPIANO is the choice of the U. S. Army.

The Autopiano factory is the largest in the world devoted exclusively to the manufacture of player-pianos. We are exclusive representatives of the Autopiano in El Paso and vicinity. Phone 167 for our enclosed card for appointment and demonstration.

Shirts Laundered Here Wear Much Longer

Every man knows that a steam laundered shirt keeps clean longer than the home laundered shirt.

And every El Paso man would know, were he an El Paso Laundry patron that shirts laundered here wear longer than those laundered "most anywhere."

This is because our modern equipment—no rubbing in washing, bosom pressing machines that never scorch, neckband and cuff machines that do not make ragged edges.

Sending your laundry to us is practicing true economy. A hail to a driver, a postcard or phone 470, and we're on the way for your work.
